

ATTITUDE IS EVERYTHING

Have you ever been in a room full of people and someone shows up at the entrance and it seems that the brightness in the room goes up a notch? We all know folks like this. They are people who care about how you are doing and lots of love for the children along with a solid prayer life. They move from person to person in the room and visit with everyone. What a blessing to have people like this in your life.

On the other side of the coin there are people that the lights dim simply because they are always complaining about everything. Nothing is good enough no matter how hard you try.

The following story fascinated me and I hope it does for you too.

There once was a woman who woke up one morning, looked in the mirror and noticed she had only three hairs on her head. Well," she said, "I think I'll braid my hair today?" So, she did and she had a wonderful day.

The next day she woke up, looked in the mirror and saw that she had only two hairs on her head. "H-M-M," she said, "I think I'll part my hair down the middle today?" So, she did, and she had a grand day.

The next day she woke up, looked in the mirror and noticed that she had only one hair on her head. "Well," she said, "today I'm going to wear my hair in a ponytail." So, she did and she had a fun, fun day.

The next day she woke up, looked in the mirror and noticed that there wasn't a single hair on her head. "YEAH!" she exclaimed, "I don't have to fix my hair today!"

Attitude is everything. Be kinder than necessary, for everyone you meet is fighting some kind of battle. Live simply, love generously, Care deeply, speak kindly...Leave the rest to God. Life isn't about waiting for the storm to pass.... It's about learning to dance in the rain.

Philippians 4: 4-7 Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near. Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.
